4th Day Testimony by the Publisher

I'd like talk about the separated brothers.

The truth is that I, do not have a problem with the "separated brothers", because we are all brothers in Christ, because we're all looking for a common goal, perhaps in a different way, but all we follow the same objective, "that is God" through Christ, in addition in the Bible in the gospel according to Mark says that John went to complain to Jesus about someone who was not part of them, the 12 apostles, "who was healing in the name of Jesus", and Jesus replied to him, "the one that is not against us, then is with us", therefore, if we follow what he teaches, that in my opinion means that whomever follows His will and lives His faith, independently of the religion he practices it's ok, I get invitations to be part of several Churches, but by simply responding...I am very HAPPY, and very satisfied with what the Catholic Church gives me, it's enough, so they know, that they are not going to be able to change me, but it's important to say it with conviction, without doubting, of everything that Church means to us, is important to carry our faith with pride, and to evangelize, the same or more than the separated brothers, the difference is that we must focus a bit more in those who do not belong to a different church, but the ones that belong to our own Church, it's some sort of internal evangelization, to obtain what? that our Catholic brothers, live a better life, but full in Christ, an intimate relation with God, not only during Christmas, and Easter, or on Sundays warming up a seat, and what do we get by changing our Catholic brothers? before wanting to go any further, what better way to attract more brothers, including the separated brothers, this would be when THE CATHOLIC COMMUNITY gives testimony of the Christian life, because us Cursillistas we have a responsibility, to change our surroundings, beginning with ourselves, then our family, then our relatives, and soon it would have to be our Church, is not easy, because there's so much to change, but slowly, but firmly, each of us should do our part to continue preaching the word, if we see a fellow Cursillista in times of weakness, sheer him up, and remind him, that the Cursillista has it more difficult than others, because I always have thought that the one that does not know anything about the Cursillo movement has the excuse of ignoring or not knowing very clearly what to do, but those of us that have lived the Cursillo, we cannot ignore it, we know exactly what's expected from us and what we must do, if we don't do it, is pure laziness, because we've let the enemy gain our will, but the most important thing, we stop following the path which began on our 4th day, and remember that God never lets go of US, it's us that let go of HIM.

Cursillista's Footprints In The Sand

One night a Cursillista had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand: one belonging to him, and the other to the LORD. When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life. This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it: "LORD, you said after I took the Cursillo and once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied: "My son, my precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Thoughts For The Soul

A sick man turned to his doctor, as he was preparing to leave the examination room and said, "Doctor, I am afraid to die. Tell me what lies on the other side." Very quietly, the doctor said, "I don't know."

"You don't know? You, a Christian man, do not know what is on the other side?"

The doctor was holding the handle of the door; on the other side came a sound of scratching and whining, and as he opened the door, a dog sprang into the room and leaped on him with an eager show of gladness.

Turning to the patient, the doctor said, "Did you notice my dog? He's never been in this room before. He didn't know what was inside. He knew nothing except that his master was here,

AND when the door opened, he sprang in without fear. I know little of what is on the other side of death, but I do know one thing... I know my Master is there

Prayer for the Sick!

Lord Jesus Christ, whom to redeem mankind and to heal the sick and needy you wanted to assume our human condition, watch with mercy _____, that he is sick and needs to be cured in the body and the spirit. Comfort him with your power so that it raises his spirit and it can surpass all his suffering; and, since you have wanted to associate him to your redeeming Passion, beam that trusts and the effectiveness of pain for the salvation of the world. You that have lived and ruled for the ages.

Amen.
